Our President Goes to Washington D.C. for National Hill Day

Dr. Theresa Rulien was a part of the Florida Hill Day Team that attended the 21st Annual National Council for Behavioral Health's Hill Day in Washington D.C. From October 2 - 4, the Florida team was successful in reaching 27 of the 29 members of the Florida Congressional delegation. Dr. Rulien met with Members of Congress to discuss funding and support of mental health and substance abuse services.
